District Description

Wayne Community Schools District 17 is located in Wayne, NE and includes the counties of Wayne, Dixon and Cedar. The district is supported by a strong business community, a local hospital, a four-year college, and several state funded agencies. The district educates students from three facilities with a kindergarten-6th elementary school, a 7th-12th grade Jr/Sr High School and a three and four year old preschool program at our Early Learning Center. The district is involved in the Cognia-NCA System Accreditation process, provides a rigorous curriculum and comprehensive program of instruction, along with a wide variety of extra-curricular activities. The district has excellent partnerships with Wayne State College, Wayne Area Economic Development, the City of Wayne, and Wayne County. With a strong foundation of support from many aspects in our community, the course is set for an excellent educational and future opportunities for the students at Wayne Community Schools!
